Server.js → starts → app.js server side

→ initializes → express.js → defaults to → index.html starts client side scripts including all views contain error handling error handling div using ng-bind

adjusts url to match state; initializes corresponding view xxxx.client. view.html *

updates state →

Sets initial state to listings.list app.js client side

declares controller delivers response error by binding it to $scope; sets $scope. loading to false if necessary enters function corresponding to user's CRUD request listings.client. routes.js sets $scope.loading if necessary to true listings.client. controller.js forwards request to server files listings.client. factory.js executes DB requests and returns response (or error) server files **

* display loading .gif if loading flag is set ; outputs success or error message to page  see diagram from previous assignment for more details